2. Church Library Open House ✂

Today – Between Services

Are you wondering what there is to do after the holiday festivities are over, and the world seems cold and dreary? Come join the All Saints library staff between the worship services today for an Open House. There will be treats to enjoy and a special reward for the person who can guess the closest number of books that have been accessioned in the library. Also, there is an extra treat for anyone who checks out a book! You don't even need a library card. There are books for young and older children and plenty of biographies, fiction, commentaries, and topical studies. Check out a book and be ready to read it while curled up in a warm blanket with a hot beverage on a cold, cloudy (maybe snowy) day this winter!

6. Women's Bible Study ❖

The Tuesday morning and Thursday evening Women's Bible study will be reading and discussing Habakkuk: Learning to Live by Faith by Lydia Brownback, who has authored an excellent group of books in her Flourish Bible Study Series. Habakkuk will encourage all of us who wonder "Why" and "How long?" to "Wait in Faith as Long as it Takes". Come join us beginning Tuesday morning (9:30) on January 28 or Thursday evening (7:30) on January 30. The evening study will continue to meet at Kathy Hutton's at 3207 Hanover Ave. The location of the morning study is TBA. There are sign up sheets for both studies in between the Fellowship Hall and Auditorium to let us know how many books to order. You can also contact Kathy Hutton (kathy@familyhutton.com) or Janet Zeigler (giftedandgoofy@comcast.net) to let us know if you need a book or have questions. Hope you will plan to join us.
