Meetings and Events

1. November Fellowship Meal ✂

We will have our regular 4th Sunday Fellowship Meal next week, 11/26. An email will come out later this week announcing the main course. The Jones and Yehnert Shepherding Groups have set up and clean up.

2. Lessons and Carols ✂

We will hold our annual Christmas Eve gathering for “Lessons and Carols” at 5:00pm Christmas Eve in the auditorium.

3. No Fellowship meal in December ✂

The 4th Sunday of December this year is 12/24 and considering that the Session is canceling the regular fellowship meal because we will have “Lessons and Carols” that evening.

4. Lost and Found Table ✂

The lost and found table in the fellowship hall will become a free table during the fellowship meal next week, so be sure to look today or first thing next week to see if any of this great stuff belongs to you.

5. Angel Tree ✦

Angel Tree is a program of Prison Fellowship that connects prisoners (men and women) with their children and families at Christmas time by taking a gift to the child in the name of the incarcerated parent. This is also an evangelistic outreach in that we present the Gospel to the families when we deliver the gifts. This Christmas we will sponsor forty-five children through All Saints Presbyterian Church. The cost to sponsor one child is $25.00 to $30.00. This is a great project for singles, couples, or families to do together at Christmas time. Families can study family worship about caring for the needy, pray for these prisoners and their families, buy a gift(s), deliver the gift(s), and present the Gospel. You'll need to get the gifts to the children before December 22nd.

If you're interested, call or email Jessica Pilson 804-651-3195, (jlpilson@hotmail.com) or Madelyn Pilson at 804-922-1754, (madelyn.pilson@gmail.com) and let them know how many children you want to sponsor. Either Jessica or Madelyn will get back with you.

Note: If you want to give only money, we could put your money towards a gift card for a larger family who requested several gift cards.
